Interesting Exercises at the Wentworth street Lutheran Church.

The audiversary exercises of the Sundayschool connected with the Wentworth street Lutheran Church took place yesterday afternoon in the church building, and proved exceedingly interesting. The church was crowded in every part by the children of the Wentworth street and St. John's Lutheran Sundayschools and by their friends and teachers, and was very tastefully decorated for the occasion. A profusion of flowers appeared on every side, and especially in the chancel, around which wreaths, crosses and festoous of cut flowers were tastefully displayed, while over the whole was hung a garland enclosing the motto, "Welcome St. John's." Inside of the chancel rail were seated the Rev. W. S. Bowman, of the Wentworth street Church; Rev. T. W. Desh, of St. John's Church, and Rev. Jno. H. Honour, Captain W. J. Wiley, superintendent of the Wentworth street school; Mr. Robert G. Chisolm, superintendent of St. John's school; Major J. H. Murrell, Captain George S. Hacker and Mr. John F. Ficken.

The exercises were opened with the hymn, "From year to year," sung by the children under the leadership of Miss C. Estelle Scanlan, who has been untiring in the musical education of the children of the Wentworth street school, and is to be congratulated upon the success of her instruction. The pastor, Rev. W. S. Bowman, then offered up a prayer, and the "Sunday-school volunteer song" was sung, after which an opening address was recited very creditably by Muster Henry Mun-

The superintendent, Captain W. J. Wiley, then read his annual address, as follows: Time, in its rapid flight, has brought us to another station on the railway of lite, and we panse a moment to take a survey of the past. It it be true as the poet sings, "That a sorrow's crown of sorrow is remembering happier tilings," then, thanks be to God, we have not yet reached that today to reached that today to reached the control of the second state. things," then, thanks be to God, we have not yet reached that point, for as we review the scenes through which we have passed, and cast our eyes upon those which surround us, we find abundant cause for rejoicing still, and hear loud calls upon us for renewed thanksgiving to Him "from whom all blessings flow" for the continued prosperity of our Sunday-School. At the same time our joy is sub used by a tinge of sadness, because of the lesses we School. At the same time our joy is subjued by a tinge of sadness, because of the lesses we have sustained since our last anniversary. But a short time subsequent to that occasion one of our dearly loved and highly esteemed teachers. May First McKinkar, was achied from one of our dearly loved and highly essemed teachers, Miss E.lza McKinley, was called from the labors of the Sunday-School to the test of Heaven. Having faithfully discharged her dutle and finished the work assigned her here below, the Master said "come up higher," and she was greeted in the Jerusalem above with well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of thy Lord."

During the prevalence of the epidemic in our city last fall two of our promising scholars became its victims, Edwin P. Starr and James O. Starr problers, who were taken in the arms

Of these five are now teachers; some have entered upon the solve duties of the, some have left the c ty, active duties of the, some have left the cty, and two have gone to the spirit land, while others have taken their places to a great extent, so that the number now on the roll does not materially vary from what it was then. The loss has been thirty-three boys, thirty-six girls; the additional thirty-six boys and twenty-three girls, making an apparent diminution of ten, of whom, however, five are now teachers, so that the actual loss is five. The number now on the roll is two number now on the roll is two

The largest number present at one time was one hundred and twenty.

The largest number present at one time was one hundred and elghty-four, the smallest forty-three, which was on 10th September, a very rainy day, during the prevalence of the yellow tever. It is wortny of remark that, during the whole time that the epidemic prevaled, the average attendance, luchaning the valied, the average attendance, including the ralpy Sunday just mentioned, was eighty-six.

Scholars were notified that the plan dopted the previous year of giving rewards adopted the previous year torty-nine times in the year would be continued, and we have the pleasure to report that twenty-seven have come up to the requirement. When we concheasure to report that twenty-seven have come up to the requirement. When we consider the extent to which the sickness prevailed for three months, and that all the children were subjects for it, the number entitled to the reward is more than could reasonably be expected. Their names are as follows:

We have had, during the year, some additions to the library, both by purchase and donations. We desire particularly to acknowledge and to return our thanks thus publicly to Capiain Baker, of the British ship Julia, who kindly presented to the school thirty-four volumes of valuable books in excellent condition. May he be affondantly rewarded by Him who affectionately charged the apostle to 'feed His lambs." "feed His lambs."
The annual picnic of the school took place

The annual plenic of the school took place at the Schutzenplatz on the 3d instant, which was greatly enjoyed, not only by the children, but also by their parents and friends, and, as far as the superintendent is informed, gave general satisfaction to all.

The funds contributed by the congregation.

The funds contributed by the congregation, we are happy to report, were more than sufficient to deiray all the expenses.

The great object and end of Sunday-school instruction is or should be the religious training of the youthful mind for the enjoyment of Christ's kingdo. on earth and his eiernal glory in heaven. The church receives its accessions from this source, and it affords the glory in heaven. The church receives its accessions from this source, and it affords the highest satisfaction to the superintendent to report that six of the scholars have, during the past, year, been received into the communion of the church. Thus God has blessed the labors of His servants. Let us, with glad hearts and renewed energies and determination, enter upon the work of another year. God has usen very gracious to us in the past; we will, then joyfully thank God and take courage, hoping and praying for greater mancourage, hoping and praying for greater man-itestations of His merciful loving kindness in

The "Jubilate Deo" was next sung, and an address on Faith and Hope delivered by Mr. James M. Lea. This was followed by the bymn, "Jesus, dear, I come to Thee;" a dialogue on Exaggeration between Masters J. M. Lea, Geo. Hunter, and S. F. Easterby; the hymn, "That Beautiful Land;" an address entitled "The Apple Tree," by Master S. F. Pitcher; the hymn, "Dare to Do Right," address, "A Little Thing," by Master S. F. Easterby; the chant of "The Lord's Prayer; a dialogue between Masters Julian Smith, Jeffv Richardson and Arthur Johnson, of St. John's school, and an address, "Take up the Collection," in which Mester Willie B. Latar, the smallest speaker of the occasion, especially distinguished himself.

The good advice which the little fellow gave to the congregation appeared to be liberally responded to when the collection boxes were passed around, and then followed the distribution of prizes for punctual attendance. The pupils named above were called up and each of them was presented with a book rangin, in value from one dollar and twenty-five cents to three dollars. The entire infant class was then called up and a beautiful toy book, with colored pictures, presented to each one, as follows: Herbert Little, Florentina Kroeg, Anna Ogren, Benjamin Morgan, Robert Starr, Willametta Familier, Louis Froncy, Charlie Stone, Joseph Schwake, Rebecca Honour, Henry Lemon. Jessie Whittemore, Priolean Grice, Charile Honour, Robert Flemming, Lizzie Morgan, Bobert Dunning, Anna Kriete, Frank Hunter, Leuisa Wirth, Willametta Schultz, William B. Thomas Happoldt, William Seyle, John Seyle, Green Burns, Lilly Smith, Willie Harvey,

The singing of the "Songs of the Beautiful" Stewart Easterby. concluded the exercises, and after a doxology and benediction, the congregation was dismissed.

HO! FOR HANOVER,

The Departing Delegation of the Schutzen-Scene at the Champion, &c.

On Saturday afternoon seven members of the German Rifle Club, accepting the invitation from the Fatherland, left for New York on the steamer Champion en route for the general Schutzenfest, to take place at Hanover about the middle of next July. The delegation, mostly in uniform, assembled at neadquarters, Lindstedt's Hall, where, in company with the brother members of their club, they partook of a collation, and clinked glasses for the last time ere their departure for the their band, the expected parade did not take place; but, arm in arm, the travellers were escorted to the steamer Champion, and as the members of the delegation entered the noble ship the soul-stirring chorus of 'Die Wacht am Rhein" made them pause and echo back the words of their companions on the wharf. The delegation consists of nine members wno, in audicipation of their extended trip, have formed a company and elected their officers. They are as follows: F. Ansel, president; F. Keilner, secretary; Max. Belltzer, reasurer; S.-Schoubert, W. Nolte, H. Spiencken, E. H. Rieckels, August Stelling, John Monsees. The two last mentioned left some day's ago, and the whole party start ahead of time in order that they may visit their friends and relations in various parts of Germany before the fest comes off.

They bear the handsome medal presented by the German Rifle Ciub, of this city, and the the line of march have already been published, other two presents-a $20 piece from Mr. J. C. and it is safe to say that the streets through H. Claussen, and the mammoth drinking horn, with a capacity of seven botiles or a gallon and a half of wine, from Mr. A. D. Lorenz. A novel addition to these was nade by Mr. L. Deliz, who sent over his pet alligator as a favorable specimen of the "South Carolina and all of whom are ready to devote their ser-Mocking Bird." The reptlle, after having crawled about the deck and been freely handled about to the no small anxiety of several nervous old ladies, was plunged into a boat half filled with water and left there for safekeeping. As soon as the gong sounded "all ashore," the schutz n gathered at the head of the wharf, and as the ship moved slowly out, took leave of their departing friends, who vere grouped upon the upper deck, with singing "The Fatherland" and waving their handkerchiefs until the ship was far down the stream.

CONFIRMATION was administered by Bishop Lynch at St. Mary's Church yesterday morning, just before High Mass, and at St. Peter's Church in the afternoon.

THE NEW YORK FRUIT MARKET.-The Daily Bulletin of Saturday, May 25, says:

Apples continue dull and unchanged. Straw-berries pienty, and about the same as yester-day. We quote strawberries 6a18c per quart. Apples—Russett's Roxbury $5a5 50, Russett's golden $444 50.

THE MINSTRELS TO-NIGHT .- Skiff & Gaylord's fine troupe of minstrels, gymnasts and burlesquers open to-night at the Academy of Music and will remain until Thursday night. The reputation of this standard combination is well known in Charleston; they have added a number of new attractions which combine to render their entertainment more irresistibly comical than ever before, and they deserve, and will doubtless receive, a liberal welcome on this return to the city.

THE INDEPENDENT SOCIAL CLUB. -At a meet ing of this flourishing organization, held last Saturday evening, at their hall in Market street, the following officers and standing committees were appointed to serve for the ensuing year : C. A. Buero, president; D. Murphy, vice-president; William Moran, secretary and treasurer; committee on finance, D. Murphy, E. D. Maynard, R. E. Buero; committee on letters, William Moran, J. Halloran; steward, P. Kennedy. Atter the election, the members discussed the contents of a punch bowl.

MOVEMENTS OF THE IRON LINE STEAMSHIPS. The favorite steamship South Carolina, Captain Beckett, of Clyde's Iron line, arrived at New York on Friday evening, at eleven o'clock, after a short and pleasant voyage from this city. The solendid steamship Georgia is appointed to sail hence on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock, and will carry out a very large cargo and a considerable number of passengers. We regret to hear that Captain Crowell's continued bad health keeps him at home for the present. Captain Holmes is temporarily in command of the Georgia.

THE SUCCESS OF OUR STEAMERS .- The steamships leaving our city for Northern ports are doing an extensive and profitable trade, giving the best assurance of their good management and popularity. The favorite steamship Champion, of the "Adger Line," left on Saturday with about one hundred passengers, among which our German citizens were well represented, and whose friends were on the wharf in large numbers to see them depart. Tie Champion had also a valuable freight, among which were 1015 bales cotton and 2347 boxes vegetables. The steamer Sea Gull, for Baltimore, took a good cargo, among which were 202 bales cotton, 89 tierces rice and 500 packages vegetables.

CLUBS AND STARS .- John Miller, a colored youth, arrested for throwing brickbats on King street, was sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar or go to the House of Correction for ten days.

Daniel Glover and Francis Poag, lodged for fighting in Duncan street, and raising a disturbance, were each fined fifty cents, with an alternative of ten days in the House of Cor-A solitary mule, found astray on King street was fined one dollar. The several fines imposed were all paid up, and no addition was made to the number of delinquents at the House of Correction.

AN ALLEGED CONFIDENCE MAN CAUGHT .-It may be remembered that some weeks ago a young gentleman from New York, who was travelling as an agent for B. T. Babbitt & Son's soap manufactory, was robbed at the hote! in Summerville of some three hundred and forty dollars in money, a new revolver and severa articles of clothing. Suspicion fell upon rather flashy individual by the name of Chas. H. Carroll, alias Chase, alias Spear, &c., who had been stopping for some days at the Mills House in this city and who it was stated had flitted to a more rural retreat in Summerville without going through the little formality of settling his board bill of one hundred and fifty-eight dollars; and Lieutenant Heidt, chief of the Charleston detectives at once sent circulars with a description of the suspected party to the police of other cities and took other steps to effect his capture. Last Friday the lleutenant received notice that his man had been taken in Augusta, and he turned over the case to Mr. Koch, an old detective, to bring the prisoner to Charleston and get the proseTHE GRAND IRISH FESTIVAL.

The Parade this Morning-A Splendid Success Anticipated-Additional Prizes-How to Reach the Grounds.

To-day will be witnessed the culmination of the extensive preparations that have been on foot for weeks past for the grand Irish Festival to be given under the auspices of the Irish Rifle Ciub. Every indication betokens a brilliant success, and it will, indeed, be a worthy achievement of this young club, which is still in its very infancy, to organize and successfully conduct an enterprise upon the ambitious scale which has been projected for this festival. With the energetic officers and members of the Irish Rifle Club, however there is no such word as fail, and with the active co-operation that they have had from the other military organizations, and the libe ral assistance of so large a number of our citizens, it will be strange Indeed if this occasion do not prove one of the most pleasant Fatherland. Having been disappointed by and enjoyable that Charleston has witnessed for many a day.

The following articles have been received in addition to those already published to be shot for at the festival: From Mr. Philip J. Kennedy, Meeting street, a keg of "Nectar" whiskey; from Mr. A. W. Lewin, a silver medal; from Messrs. Hart & Co., a doublebarrel English gun; from Mr. Wm. McKay, a smoking set; from Mr. Parks, half dozen "Moorhead's" bitters; from Messrs. W. M. Bird & Co., a barrel of petroleum oil; from Mr. J. R. Read, King street, two infants dresses; from Mrs. Apple, King street, a meerschaum pipe; from Hon. A. G. Magrath, a sliver pitcher and salver; from Hon. M. P. O'Connor, silver pitcher; from Furchgott, Benedict & Co., a chromo; from Mrs. Taniunson, a pair of window shades.

The parade this morning promises to be a brilliant affair. The order of procession and which the procession is to pass will be crowded with the people of Charleston who have always manifested the deepest interest in her gallant volunteers, many of whom have already faced the tide of battle in her behalf, vices and lives if need be to her detence it the tocsin of war should again be sounded, or any emergency arise in which their arms and valor should be needed.

At the Schutzenplatz, the day will be spent in the multiform amusements specified in the programme published in another column, and, with such hosts as the Irish Rifle Club, there will be no dearth of jollity and merry-making Prominent among the festivities will be the dancing in the great ball-room, for who ever heard of an Irishman who could keep his feet still in the presence of the combined attractions of dancing, music and a partner? Then there will be an almost endless variety of other amusements, almost too tedious to mention, but by no means too tedious to witness. The festival will close this evening, at seven o'clock, but will be resumed to-morrow morning with a programme possessing attractions almost equal to those of to-day.

The facilities for reaching the grounds will e about the same as those provided during the German Schutzenfest. From the terminus of the King street line of horse cars, the stages of the Magnolia line and other conveyances will be in readiness to carry visitors to the plaiz at the moderate charge of ten cents each. Trains will run at intervals of thirty minutes, leaving Ann street Depot of South Carolina Railroad, and for further convenience the steamers of the Sullivan's Island and Mt. Pleasant Ferry Company will make frequent trips to the platz, leaving Atlantic wharves.

COLONEL JOHNSTON'S TOUR OF EUROPE WILL emain with us a few nights longer. On tonight there will be a valuable gold watch given to the audience, also one hundred valuable presents of most useful articles. Go early at Hibernian Hall and get a good seat.

CRUMBS .- A regular meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this evening. The four-oared cance Nannine is expected to participate in the forthcoming regatta. Lieutenant Mack, of Company C, Third Artillery, now stationed at the Citadel, was kicked by a horse on Saturnay afternoon. His ourt was painful but not serious.

A DARING ROBBERT Last Wednesday night the residence of Mr. James Michell, No. 10 Greenhill street, was entered by thieves and twelve hundred dollars in greenbacks and twenty-five dollars in silver, which were in a trunk in a room adjoining Mr. Michell's sleeping apartment, were taken. Information was lodged at the detectives' office, and on Thursday Robert Johnson, a colored man well known to the police, and reported by them to be one of the worst characters of a notorious gang of colored thieves, having their headquarters in Duncan street, was arrested for the robbery. The circumstances of the case make it evident that Johnson must have had a confederate, and suspicion points very strongly to another colored man whom the detectives expect to capture to-day. THE NEW YORK VEGETACLE MARKET .- The Daily Bulletin of Saturday, May 25, says: Potatoes are quiet and unchanged. Vege abless sell rather slowly and generally show a slight decline, excepting in carrots, which are scarce, and O, ster Bay asparagus, which is doing a trifle better than of late. ## Boston Market.

Boston Market.

Boston, May 22.

Coffee.—The movements in couse have been unimportant here, but in New York we notice large speculative purchases in bond. Prices have a decided upward tendency, with sales of some dation mats. Jays at 21½, 21c. Rio at 19½,822c, and 400 bags -t. D.mingo at 17418 per p und gold. The stock here is quite light, but the di-mand has been mostly speculative, the trade purchasing on y in small lots as wanted.

Outton.—There is a firmer feeling for cotton and high grades have advanced a light, but low grades remain about the same. Manufacturers continue to purchase in small lots as wanted, and we quote o dinary at 10½,22½c. good ordinary at 2½,22½c. low niddlings at 23½,224c, and mildlings at 24½,22½c. The market has been dull for con-

New York. May 25.

The Daily Bulletin says: A few sigus of irregularity have of late been noticeable on this market, and in one or two cases buyers were enabled to gain a slight advantage on odd lots. As a rule, however, holders refrained from displaying more than the usual anxiety to real ze, and have asked prices within about the former general range of quotations. The demand, principally from the trade, confined to pastive wants and not very active, but taking off a little-tock nearly every day. Sales of 120 bags Rangoon at 7c, and a few small lots Patna at 7%c, and Carolina 8%a9c. New York Hay Market.

The Daily Bulletin says: here appeas to be plenty hay at the mim-nt, and uniter rather slow demand. Stock is slightly accumu sing and prices easier. The late rains have done world of good to the growing crop; and the season was so backward, most dealers appear to be of the opinion that the late dry weather has done very little, if any, damage. Shipping North River per 100 lbs, $1 70al 75.
